

MONDAY NIGHT COUPLE'S LEAGUE RULES

HANDICAPS

- League handicap is determined by subtracting course par (36) from your score and then multiplying by 80% (A chart is available in the Golf Shop)
- All teams will establish their handicap after the first night of play.
- Net score use one decimal point (example handicap is 8.1, score 44 minus 8.1 equals 36.9)
- Max of 2 strokes per hole
- Team handicaps are not adjusted for a sub. If BOTH members of the team are gone the sub couple will establish their own handicap.

Figuring Per Hole Winner:

1. Using each team's handicap, determine number of strokes awarded per round (If your handicap is 10 and the other team's is 8 – you get strokes on 2 holes.)
2. Find the first and second handicap hole on the score card—you get one stroke for each of these holes.
3. Teams are awarded one point for each hole won. (Tied holes result in $\frac{1}{2}$ point per team)
4. Figuring net points—subtract team handicap from score. Low score wins all 4 points—tie net score results in 2 points for each team.
